WORSHIP 11AM

PRELUDE: This is My Father’s World Pipe Organ

WELCOME

OPENING PRAYER—INVOCATION

PSALM 9:9-20

PRAISE CHORUS: FWS 2040 Awesome God

CALL TO WORSHIP:

L: Trust in the Lord. Have faith; do not despair. Trust in the Lord.

P: We trust in the Lord, but sometimes it is hard to do so. We can see the flood waters, and the strong winds blowing the trees until they are uprooted, but we cannot see the Lord.

L: We can see the sun rise in the morning and be certain that it will set in the evening. We can see the moon as a sliver of light in the nights sky and have full confidence that eventually it will again be a round circle in the same sky. Can we not trust that the floods will recede and the trees will eventually remain calm?

P: We can see the work of God’s hand in creation, but we cannot see God. It is hard to trust when you cannot see God himself, but only His work.

L: If you see Mount Rushmore, can you not be certain that those who carved it did so, even though you did not see it happen? Or can you not be certain that people built the Empire State Building, even though you did not witness them doing so? Trust in the One whose creation surrounds you every day!

P: O Lord, forgive our lack of faith when we cannot see You directly. Help us see Your wondrous works and know that You are there, and that You will work in us if we will only allow You to do so!
